Vancouver 2010 Olympic Torch Relay Celebration Community Announcement

DRYDEN -- Residents of the City of Dryden anxious to catch the Olympic Spirit will have the opportunity to see the Olympic Flame in person on Monday, January 4, 2010 as it passes through on its way towards the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games. The 2010 Olympic Torch Relay, presented by Coca-Cola and RBC, will reach over 90 per cent of Canadians within a one-hour drive. The torch relay route is available at vancouver2010.com and information on how residents can apply to be torchbearers can be found at icoke.ca and rbc.com/carrythetorch.

Mayor Krassilowsky commented "The City of Dryden is absolutely thrilled to be a bright light in the string of Northern Lights that forms the path of the 2010 Olympic Torch as it weaves its way across our great country on its way to Vancouver. As we celebrate the Olympic Flame coming to Dryden, so can our athletes set their goals to follow the Olympic Flame ... from the Stadium to the Podium, from the games to the medals; Dryden joins the spirit of the Olympics and we say – Reach for your dream, Achieve the Possible."

Residents interested in applying for an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to carry the Olympic Flame can apply at iCoke.ca or rbc.com/carrythetorch. Coca-Cola and RBC, the relay's presenting partners, have the exclusive rights for the public to enter the Olympic Torchbearer program and are looking for Canadian applicants who commit to live healthier or are inspired to create a stronger country by volunteering or making sustainable choices. There will be several opportunities to apply for torchbearer spots beginning on November 21, 2008.

The 2010 Olympic Torch Relay will begin its 106-day Canadian journey on October 30, 2009. The Flame's pan-Canadian journey will culminate on February 12, 2010 when it arrives in Vancouver for the Opening Ceremony before a global viewing audience of billions.

The Vancouver 2010 Olympic Torch Relay route will be the longest domestic Torch Relay in Olympic history, stretching over 45,000 kilometres throughout Canada. Upon its conclusion, the Olympic Flame will have been welcomed in over 1,000 communities and passed within a one-hour of more than 90 per cent of the entire Canadian population.

The Government of Canada is a proud supporter of the Olympic Torch Relay helping to bring the Olympic Flame to as many Canadians as possible.
